Employee Security Awareness Training

Turn every employee into a working part of the security program — not a bystander who assumes someone else is watching.

SIMPLE. PRACTICAL. TRANSFERABLE.

Why This Matters

Every physical security control depends on the people walking past it actually paying attention. A badge program doesn't work if no one challenges an unbadged visitor.

Employee Security Awareness Training closes that gap — badge and visitor policy, recognizing and reporting suspicious activity, and avoiding tailgating, for every employee regardless of role. The difference between a workforce that reinforces security and one that works around it.
